

Dear Parents and Students,

This year for our summer reading project, each student will be involved in a reading and writing challenge. It is a great way for students to expand into different genres and keep up the skills they have worked so hard on this year. The most important thing is to make reading and writing fun!! If you have any questions, feel free to e-mail me at jgrenier@academyhill.org

Reading and Writing Bingo Board

Read a book about an animal.	Would you rather eat ice cream or popsicles? Why?	How do you like summer so far? Write and draw a picture of your June fun.	Read a book about a family.	Read outside.	Write a list of things you want to do this week.
Write about a pretend pet you have. Describe your pet (name, size, type of animal). What would you do with it?	Read a book that has been made into a movie.	Read a nonfiction book.	Read a book with a number in the title.	Write a story and include these words: pool, outside, splash.	Listen to an audio story.
Write about your parents. Include their names, where they're from, and some of their favorite things.	Read a book about a pet.	Read a Caldecott Medal book.	Write about your favorite part in a book you read recently.	Read to a stuffed animal.	Read a book from a series.
Listen to someone read aloud.	Read a nonfiction book.	Write a list of your favorite things you've done this summer.	Read about something scientific.	Write about your favorite part in a book you read recently.	Read a Caldecott Medal book.
Write down three questions you have about first grade. E-mail them to Ms. McNierney or myself.	Write about your favorite animal and why.	Read a book that has more than two different animals in it.	Read a story about food or that has food in it.	Write a letter to a classmate.	Make a list of words that describe you.

